Harold-

Just received your letter and was about to send off a couple other articles. In answer to where the clippings came from - one was from the LA Daily News and I believe the other was from USA Today (that is the article on the White affair). I'm enclosing another article on White from the STAR. Another is on the Texas Theatre being saved (that's from the Hollywood Reporter). The other article mentions the JFK Air Force one in passing and that's [redacted] from the LA Times.

It's interesting you should send me Cutler's newsletter. I subscribed to it years ago and it just keeps coming - I never resubscribed. He may be a nice guy, but he finds conspiracies in everything and his theories are as about as wild as you can get.

As for the White thing, who is the guy and where did he come from. The last assassin who "confessed" was a guy named Harrelson, whose son is on the sit com "CHEERS".

My sit-com, "The Fanelli Boys" premieres on Sat Sept 8th on NBC. It'll be on at 9:30 pm right after Golden Girls. After that one time Saturday showing, it moves to Wednesdays at 9 pm. (cont)

Glad to hear you are well.
Sorry about the Orioles. But my Reds are no lock for the division title. They've played under 500 since the All-Star Break and Eric Davis has been mired in a season long slump.
That's about all for now.
Take care

Best
